FOREWORD

The Yearbook of Original Free Will Baptists provides a comprehensive overview of denominational information and is an invaluable resource for every minister, denominational leader, or person interested in the work or history of the Original Free Will Baptists. Nowhere else can one find such an all-inclusive denominational volume.

A special thanks goes to the secretaries and clerks of churches, conferences, and organizations. It is the secretaries and clerks who provide us with the material for the Yearbook.

It is my prayer that the resources found herein help us understand where we are and come to terms with what God wants us to be.

C. H. Overman
Convention General Secretary

It being noted that the Executive Committee is not recommending the change, only bringing back to the Convention what it asked.

Upon proper motion the meeting was adjourned and we were dismissed with prayer.

REPORT OF GENERAL SECRETARY

For more than two years, your promotional office has been in operation. To serve our denomination as General Secretary during this time has been a very unique and rewarding experience.

On behalf of our Convention, I want to thank each of our churches that have included the promotional office in its regular support. Also, we are grateful for your interest, encouragement, and prayer support. I am especially appreciative for all the ministers who have offered words of encouragement and support.

During this past fiscal year, I have attended close to fifty various types of denominational meetings. These have included ministry board meetings, conferences, conventions, union meetings, as well as other types of district and local meetings of church groups. Also, I have represented our Convention in two other denominational conferences. On October 31, I attended the Middle Eastern District of Original Free Will Baptists Annual Conference of America, which met at the L. N. Forbes Tabernacle in Wilson. At that meeting it was my privilege to present Bishop Forbes a certificate of appreciation from our Convention, signed by our president, for "the Christian love and friendship" which he has shared with us in recent years. During the week of July 21, I also attended the General Association of General Baptists which met in Springfield, Illinois. We were cordially welcomed and it was my honor to bring greetings from our Convention on Tuesday evening, July 23. We are grateful for the Christian fellowship that we share with the General Baptists.

In keeping with the policy of meeting at least twice each year with our ministry directors, meetings were held on November 19, 1990, and on April 8, 1991. As an outcome of these meetings, another Ministries Slide Program is being prepared for presentation at the fall Conferences and the Auxiliary Conventions. Also, a Minister's Packet has been made available at this Convention containing ministry information and promotional ideas. It is our hope that our ministers will utilize this information throughout the year.

Yesterday, September 10, the ministry directors attended chapel with the Mount Olive College students and had lunch together. From 2-4 p.m., the students were invited to view the ministry displays and to talk with the ministry directors. This was also an outcome of the meetings with the ministry directors.

Our promotional office has undergone several improvements and changes during this year. We now have a part-time secretary, Mrs. Michelle Fordham. We also have a computer system in operation. This will enhance the work of our office. The securing of a secretary means that we now have someone at the Headquarters each day, Monday-Friday, until 4:30 each evening.

During recent months, there has been an increase in contacts from our ministers and churches regarding the securing of pastors, and pastors who are available. Please remember that this is one of the services that we are offering to our ministers and churches. When you inform us, we can share that information. We urge you to utilize our office in this capacity. We want to help.

As General Secretary, and as an Original Free Will Baptist minister for many years, there are many deep concerns for our beloved denomination. These concerns focus around our lack of growth in membership (33,066 members listed in our 1991 Yearbook), reaching our youth for Christ and then ministering to them in training and commitment, greater financial demands on a decreasing number of active members, the trends in our society away from denominationalism, failure to support our own ministries and programs in a more united effort, our seeming unwillingness to broaden our concept by uniting in some larger body which shares like faith, and a growing attitude of "I'll do my own thing." The latter is difficult to understand, since my thirty-nine years in the ministry has always been in support of who we are and what we have.

Our overall theme, "Hear the Word of the Lord," is important to us. The 1990-91 theme, "Hear the Word of the Lord Concerning Christian Commitment," is now behind us. This year we will focus on the theme, "Hear the Word of the Lord Concerning Christian Outreach." If we have found that commitment, then outreach will follow.

Remember, our promotional work is important. Remember our work in your prayers and financial support. Thanks for all you do!

4. We request that each church use our printed materials as a means of providing information with its members.
5. We request that our churches open their doors and invite the Executive Director of Retirement Homes or one of its Board members to personally share information about this retirement ministry.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD REPORT

You will find the report from the Sunday School Board of Directors in the Convention Handbook. You will note that it has been an extremely busy year for your Sunday School Board with yet much more before us. We prayerfully ask for your continued support.

I want to briefly comment on those tasks in the printed report lettered B, C, and D.

- B. In the absence of a Field Secretary to do local or area workshops, we hope to offer a variety of materials that you can use in your church for teaching and training purposes. Your superintendent will soon be receiving information about VCR tapes and materials that can be received from the Free Will Baptist Press. The only cost for using the materials will be shipping and handling. Please stop by our display table and preview the limited number of tapes that we will shortly have available to you. You may place your church's name on the reservation list while visiting our display.
- C. I hope you have seen the revised criteria for nominating a person for either the Teacher of the Year or Superintendent of the Year. Our Board worked hard to design a program that would be both easier to understand and to administer. The first Sunday School Banquet for the Family was last Friday evening at Daniel's Chapel Church in Wilson. Ninety-two people were in attendance. We enjoyed a delicious meal prepared by the Church Seniors and feasted on music presented by the New Life Singers. At the Banquet, the 1991 awards were presented to:

Teacher of the Year: Children

Hazel Casey

First FWB Church, Goldsboro

Teacher of Year: Youth

Kay Brown

Little Rock FWB Church, Lucama

Teacher of Year: Adult

Eddie Joyner

Little Rock FWB Church, Lucama

Superintendent of Year

John David Williford

Lee's Chapel FWB Church, Dunn

- D. Several churches have inquired about the Teacher and Superintendent Certification Programs. The Sunday School Board is excited to announce that the certification program has been drastically changed to meet the needs of our Sunday Schools. The certification program will offer instruction in the areas of Biblical Studies, The Free Will Baptist Church, Sunday School Work, and Personal Growth. The annual Sunday School Institute held in March will be the first offering of these units for study and certification.

As the certification program is now being written and refined for accessibility, you will be receiving more information in the near future. Thank you for your financial and spiritual support.

This year's budget does not anticipate any expense for the office of a Field Secretary. Regretfully, the Board found it necessary to terminate the position of the Field Secretary due to a lack of regular financial support from our churches, which would allow the Board to continue to fund the program even on a part-time basis . . . therefore, the program is temporarily discontinued until such time as future funds are made available to continue the work for the Field Secretary's office.

THE COMMISSION OF CHAPLAINS

The primary responsibility of the Commission of Chaplains concerns the military chaplaincy. We establish policies and procedures for our ministers to be endorsed for chaplaincy in the United States Armed Services. A minister cannot just walk into a recruiter office and sign up for a chaplaincy position in the military. Since a chaplain enters the service as an officer there are certain educational, professional and personal requirements. He, or she, must be ordained by one of our conferences, have a 4-year college degree and a degree from an accredited and approved seminary, and have a couple of years of experience in the pastorate. But the military chaplaincy is not the only responsibility we have.

The Chaplains Commission is also charged by the Convention in the Constitution and Bylaws with the responsibility for chaplains in "all other institutions and organizations using such services in the U.S.A." (Article III, Section 17).

Last year I reported that we have a chaplain in the Civil Air Patrol, which is an auxiliary of the Air Force. After the Convention, one of our ministers became a volunteer chaplain for the Selma Police Department. Our ministers are finding that there are organizations in our communities in which they can provide a much needed ministry.

At this time I would like to recognize our chaplains who are present today; so please stand when I call your name. In the United States Air Force we have Captain Mark Hobbs. In the National Guard is Major Harry Grubbs; Major Grubbs is also employed by the State of North Carolina as a prison chaplain at Maury.

1st Lieutenant Alan Lamm is chaplain of the Army Reserve. None of our chaplains were deployed to the Persian Gulf during Operation Desert Storm, but 1st Lieutenant Lamm was officially commended by the Installation Chaplain at Fort Lee, Virginia, for the support he rendered to the soldiers and their families of the 23D Quartermaster Brigade in May of this year.

Next, as a chaplain in the Civil Air Patrol, we have Captain Edmundo Gonzalez, and 1st Lieutenant T. C. Farmer.

The Rev. Preston Smith is chaplain at Nash General Hospital.

The Rev. Frank Harrison is chaplain to the students, faculty and staff here at Mount Olive College.

And the Rev. Frank Grubbs is a volunteer chaplain for the Selma Police Department.

H. Adrian Grubbs, Chairman

REPORT OF BOARD OF DENOMINATIONAL PUBLICATIONS

The booklet prepared by the Rev. Marvin Waters, presented by this Committee at the Convention in September 1990 entitled The Pulpit Committee, has been well received. More than 116 copies were sold at that time; some have been sold since then; and the booklet is available at Free Will Baptist bookstores and from the chairman of this Board.

The survey with reference to publication of a minister's manual was well received, also, with 113 responses, with a majority in favor.

The Board of Publications has scheduled five meetings during this Convention year and worked consistently on the manual, to be titled Worship Resources. We have set February 1, 1992, as deadline for the completion of a tentative compilation of materials; and we hope to be ready for publication during the next year.

The Rev. Bruce Dudley, chairman, resigned from the Committee in June. The Rev. Aubrey Williamson is serving as temporary chairman, until our next meeting, October 5, 1991.

My records do not show any expenses submitted to the State Treasurer this year.

We appreciate the cooperation and support of the people who have submitted manuscripts and helped us in other ways. We sincerely request that you continue to remember us in your prayers and with your support.

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE LAYMAN'S LEAGUE

Greetings from the North Carolina State Layman's League Executive Committee and State Layman's League Board. We, the laymen of the Free Will Baptist Church, are acting through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, uniting in His body, as one, endeavoring to hold in highest esteem all phases of Christianity.

The North Carolina State Layman's League with its conferences and local Leagues has continued with a vision for the future during the past year. We have reached our initial goal of $10,000 in the Layman's League Endowment at Mount Olive College. As this Endowment continues to grow, we can see in our future when it will pay the support of a student for a full year's tuition.

During the last year, we have seen a new beginning in the North Carolina State Layman's League, as our new brochures became available setting forth our goals and aims. A new spark of excitement and enthusiasm has emerged in our Leagues, a "What can I do?", "Let me do it," "Let me serve," or "Let me be first" attitude that will cause this spark to become a flame, that will engulf our denomination with a new awareness of our laymen as we shine for Christ.

Our Spiritual Life Retreat has again captured the spotlight during the year. With the Revs. Ray Wells and David Charles Hansley as speakers, our hearts and minds were touched as we considered the walk of obedience. We saw our retreat grow for the first time, double the size of the previous year. We had many that spent the night and prepared a meal of bar-b-que turkey for all who attended. All who came grew closer to their brothers through this loving fellowship. In the coming year, plan to attend your next retreat, to touch others and grow in Christ.

We, the North Carolina State Layman's League, through our Promotional Committee and various Leagues, will again this year be adding fuel to that spark that will continue to grow and unite the men of our denomination. As you will see in our display booth, this unity will become a lighthouse with a light that will touch all for the cause of Christianity.

We prayerfully encourage each local League to fan the spark with continued support of your North Carolina State Layman's League. We appreciate all your support in the past year, especially Mount Olive College, the Rev. Frank Harrison and the Rev. Leon Harris. We ask that you continue to pray for us as we strive to burn bright for the cause of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,
John Newton, President
Chuck Whitford, Secretary

CAROLINA BIBLE INSTITUTE REPORT

Mr. President, Officers of the Convention, Ministers, Delegates, and friends,

I bring you greetings from the students and staff of Carolina Bible Institute and Seminary.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I give you this report.

This past Monday, September 9, we began our 17th year as a Bible institution, dedicated to teaching the inerrant Word of God to men and women who have received a special call from God for Christian service. This year our student body has increased by 25% over last year and we are expecting an even larger increase when we open our day classes the first week in October. In addition to the day classes, we have opened an extension in New Bern. Dr. Jerry English, pastor of Antioch Church, will be teaching these classes and the classes are being conducted in the fellowship building of Antioch Church. Dr. English will be teaching Bible Chronology on Tuesday evenings.

During the past year, we have added three new members to our staff. They are the Rev. Stanley Buck, Dr. Jerry English, and Dr. Howard Starling. We also installed three additional trustees at our Annual Friendship Banquet last Saturday evening. They are Mr. Charles Bennett of Aurora, NC, who is an executive officer with Texas Gulf Corporation; Mr. J. T. Wilson of Vanceboro, NC, who is a retired postal officer; and Mr. J. C. Blinson of Clayton, NC, who is a local farmer. Dr. Floyd B. Cherry was also installed as Chancellor and yours truly as President at the Banquet Saturday evening.

Carolina Bible Institute and Seminary is accredited by the Accrediting Commission International for Schools, Colleges and Theological Seminaries. We are also in the process of applying for Accreditation with the Transnational Association of Christian Schools (TRACS). TRACS has been approved by the U.S. Department of Education as an officially recognized Accreditation Agency to evaluate and accredit Christian post-secondary Institutions (Liberal Arts Colleges, Graduate Schools, Seminaries, Bible Colleges/Institutions, etc.) that are committed to biblical inerrancy, strict creationism, the historicity of Genesis, and other doctrines of the gospel. Hopefully we will have met all requirements for TRACS Accreditation when we give our report next year.

At the present, the following colleges and universities have accepted work from Carolina Bible Institute and Seminary: Methodist College, Free Will Baptist College, Liberty University, Columbia Bible College, and Covington Theological Seminary.

We, at Carolina Bible Institute and Seminary, appreciate the kindness shown to us by this Convention and for the support we have received from the Conferences and churches which make up this Convention.

We, the staff and students of Carolina Bible Institute and Seminary, covet your prayers and financial support throughout the coming years. Be assured that we will conduct our school in such a way as to make you proud of us.

Respectfully submitted,
L. Grady Tucker, D.Min., Ph.D.-C.C., President

REPORT OF THE HISTORICAL COMMISSION

The Free Will Baptist Historical Collection is located in Moye Library at Mount Olive College.

The members of the Historical Commission would like to encourage all churches to preserve their history by bringing church records and minutes to the Historical Collection to be microfilmed and added to the collection. A number of churches will be celebrating the centennial year of their founding very soon. We encourage these churches, and all churches, to write a history of their church and place a copy in the Historical Collection.

An increasing number of churches are celebrating "Pastor Appreciation Day." This is a perfect occasion to write a biographical sketch of your pastor and place a copy in the Historical Collection.

At the death of ministers, obituary committees have requested information about the minister and there is incomplete or no information available in the Historical Collection. To ensure that Original Free Will Baptist history is complete and preserved, we encourage all ministers to complete and update the Minister's Data Sheet available in the Historical Collection.

We invite you to visit and use the Historical Collection at your convenience.

OBITUARY COMMITTEE REPORT

It is customary that we pause during our annual Convention to pay tribute to the memory of those lay persons and ministers who have passed away since our last meeting. We, as a Christian body, can and do continue to praise God in every facet of life, even in death. We recognize that although the physical body is no more, we believe that life continues. It is on this faith that we focus on God and life—things eternal and spiritual, rather than on man and death—things temporal and physical. Therefore, we pause for worship and praise for what God has meant in the lives of these deceased as well as to what they have meant in the lives of those of us who have known them.

Psalm 144:3-4—"LORD, what is man that thou hast regard for him? Or the son of man, that thou takest account of him? Man is like a breath, his days are as a fleeting shadow."

Psalm 90:6—"In the morning he flourishes and grows up like grass, in the evening he is cut down and withers.

Psalm 90:12—"So teach us to number our days, that we may get us a heart of wisdom."

Psalm 37:37—"Mark the man of integrity, and behold the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace."

Let us worship the Lord. Let us come before Him in praise and in thanksgiving for the life He has given us and for His love which sustains us. Let us praise God for the Christian service of those we memorialize, and we ask for the strength and guidance to honor daily these deceased by the lives that we lead. Certainly we can honor them in no better way than to serve the One that they served.

So today, we praise God for the lives of a host of lay persons and for the three ministers of our denomination who have died since we last meet. Those ministers are: W. Arthur Martin, 1907-1991; Boyd L. Shook, 1920-1991; and James Corder, 1991.

Let us stand for a silent tribute and a concluding prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
Gary Barefoot, Chairman

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE CONVENTION OF FREE WILL BAPTIST LEAGUES

Mr. President, delegates and friends, I bring you greetings from the North Carolina State Convention of Free Will Baptist Leagues.

A wise man once said, "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it" (Proverbs 22:6).

The League is the training unit of the church. The church knows the way the children should go and through the League programs of the church we train them. But we can only train them if they are involved in a local League.

Today, in this era of high peer pressure and fast living, we really need to get involved in the training of our young people. The future of our society and our churches are in the hands of our youth.

In 1965, a survey was conducted. Teachers in grades four through seven were asked to list the five most important concerns that they had about their children in the way of discipline. Do you know what they were in 1965? Number one, chewing gum in class. Number two, not getting out of line (lunch line or some other). Number three, not putting trash in trash can or proper place. Number four, improper manners. Number five cheating.

In 1990, the same survey was conducted. The results were tragic. (Remember fourth through seventh grade.) Number one, drugs. Number two, teenage pregnancies. Number three, vandalism. Number four, violence. Number five, stealing.

Beloved, our kids need to know we love them, and that we care. We can show our love and concern by family training and the best place is in God's house. The League is the training unit of the church. Beloved, our children need God, and America needs godly children to stay the great nation it is.

If you do not have a League in your church, please contact one of us on the League committee and we will be glad to help you any way we can. Please stop by our display and pick up some information. Mr. President, I move you adopt this report as information.

Respectfully submitted,
Ed Thornton, President
Judy Moore, Secretary

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

The Resolutions Committee submits the following resolutions for the Convention's consideration and action:

1. WHEREAS, Powerful forces within our state government are intent upon introducing legislation that could result in legalized gambling being established in North Carolina;

WHEREAS, We, the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, believe and teach that clear scriptural principles lie behind the Christian's opposition to gambling;

WHEREAS, Everything we have is given by God and held in trust;

WHEREAS, Gambling always violates God's basic laws, in that we are to love our neighbor as ourselves which means we should not want to win at another's expense;

WHEREAS, God's Word condemns a self-centered attachment to money and also condemns covetousness and greed;

WHEREAS, The Christian ideal is not taking from others, but giving; for Jesus said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35);

WHEREAS, Every Christian should speak out against gambling (because of the many sociological, psychological, economic, and political factors involved, no true child of God can afford to sit by idly and allow this travesty upon our public);

WHEREAS, Our voice must be heard loudly and clearly that whatever the short-term benefit of legalized gambling may be, it can never be the best long-range interest of the State of North Carolina or our people;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists meeting on Thursday, September 12, 1991, does hereby request that the General Assembly of North Carolina oppose any legislation that would result in legalized gambling being established in North Carolina.

2. If the resolution opposing a state-operated lottery is adopted by the Convention,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Executive Committee of the Convention send copies of the resolution to all members of the North Carolina General Assembly, Governor Martin, Lt. Governor Gardner, and to all other key officials within state government, and that a news release be made to all members of the state news media and interviews offered and encouraged by our Executive Committee.

3. BE IT RESOLVED that in the printing of our Convention Yearbook, beginning this year, that we include the name of the minister's spouse placed in parenthesis following the minister's name.

4. BE IT RESOLVED that the Convention give a vote of thanks to Mount Olive College for their gracious hospitality in hosting this 79th Annual Session of our Convention.

5. BE IT RESOLVED that the Convention give a vote of thanks to the Convention Executive Committee for their work in preparation for the Convention and in the manner in which it was conducted.

6. Being aware of the tremendous responsibilities placed upon our ministers and the terrific stress these can bring;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Executive Committee of this Convention work with the Board of the Minister's Program to consider establishing an office or position that would serve as pastor to our ministers.

PROCEEDINGS

The Sixty-fourth Annual State Woman's Auxiliary Convention convened May 9, 1991, in the Piedmont District with East Rockingham Church. The theme for the Convention was "To Be True Servants," with Scripture taken from John 12:26. This was dramatically portrayed in an act of humility as Dianne Riley washed the feet of Joan Little as Deborah King narrated.

There were fifteen state officers present, twenty ministers, fifty-eight delegates and fifty-one visitors, for a total of one hundred forty-four in attendance.

The business session was opened with the president making reference to the minutes printed in the report book. She asked the delegates to read over them and a vote would be taken in the afternoon business session.

The following committees were appointed by the president: Registration and Credentials, Jean Ackiss, chairman, Nadine Crocker and Marie Holmes; Finance, Nadine Crocker, chairman, Louise Bryan and Minnie Godwin; Resolutions, Becky Jo Sumner, chairman, Jackie Flowers and Grace Barbour.

Nina Grace Register presented the Life Membership Award to Mrs. Bruce (Alice) Barrow.

The Rev. Willem van der Plas introduced his wife Lydia as the speaker for the morning message. She spoke on the Convention theme, challenging all of us to true servanthood. This was followed by the Memorial Service, led by Janet Brown, president of the Eastern District.

Reports were then given by the following committees: Registration and Credentials, Anna Phillips Student Aid Fund and the Resolutions Committee. Sandra Jones then gave the Secretary's report, with eleven A-1 Auxiliaries.

The Finance Committee and Treasurer's Reports were given by Nadine Crocker. Motion was made and carried to adopt these reports. Motion was made by the Finance Committee to give $188 to complete the $3,000 project goal for 1990-91 on the Dining Hall at Mount Olive College. Motion carried.

The Temporary Nominating Committee recommended the following Standing Committee nominations: Cragmont Stockholders, Nancy Hardee (PD) 1991-1994; Christian Education, Dianne Riley (E) 1991-1994; Literature, Linda Bryan (PD) 1991-1996. Motion was made to accept these nominations by acclamation. Motion carried.

Motion was made to adopt the minutes as recorded in the report book. Motion carried.

The 1992 Convention will be hosted by the Western District at Stoney Creek Church on Thursday, May 14, 1992.

REPORTS

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MINUTES

(January 19, 1991)

The North Carolina Woman's Auxiliary Executive Committee met on Saturday, January 19, 1991, at 10 a.m., in the Olive Room at Mount Olive College. There were 14 members, 7 district presidents, and 3 visitors present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Carolyn Jernigan.

The minutes of the June 23, 1990, Executive Committee meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given by Nadine Crocker.

Reports were given by each member present.

Happy Taylor, program-prayer chairman, distributed the recommended program for the State Auxiliary Convention to be held at East Rockingham Free Will Baptist Church, in the Piedmont District, on May 9, 1991. The theme will be "To Be True Servants."

District presidents were reminded that the registration fee is $15 this year at the State Auxiliary Convention and local auxiliaries should send these fees to the State Treasurer by April 25.

The President appointed Ruth Warrick and Janet Brown to serve as the Temporary Nominating Committee. They will make their report at the State Woman's Auxiliary Convention.

The President appointed Nina Grace Register and Pat Deese to serve on the Life Membership Award Committee. She requested that they follow through with the presentation at the State Auxiliary Convention.

The President appointed Deborah King to attend the reception on Saturday night of the State Youth Convention and present the award.

Jean Ackiss reported that C. H. Overman, general secretary of the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, had asked her to give the following information to all district presidents. Mr. Overman, along with the Executive Committee of the State Convention of Free Will Baptists, met last fall with all denominational ministries. Considering the many items of business to be taken care of at the district conventions, Mr. Overman is offering to provide a comprehensive report on all denominational ministries at the fall district auxiliary conventions. All of the denominational ministries are agreeable to this report. Each district president is requested to discuss with her Executive Committee this method of reporting for their fall convention and Mr. Overman will contact the district presidents for their response. For personal contact, a representative from each of the ministries will still attend the district conventions, but will not give an oral report if the district chooses this method for its fall convention.

Joan Little asked if the State Woman's Auxiliary Convention needed to consider changing its name to coincide with the name of the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, since the name has been changed to omit the words "North Carolina State." The president appointed a committee to study the possibility of changing the name of the North Carolina State Woman's Auxiliary Convention and report back to the Executive Committee at its June 22, 1991, meeting. The committee appointed was Happy Taylor, chairman, Jean Marlowe, and Clara Patrick.

A motion to adjourn was made by Nadine Crocker and seconded by Jean Marlowe. Motion carried.

(Friday Morning Session)

The Rev. M. E. Cox, moderator, called the meeting to order, with the congregation singing "Just Over in the Gloryland."

The Rev. Claude Garrett Sr. opened in prayer.

The following songs were sung by Cecil and Judy Tucker: "After Calvary," "Without Jesus, What Would I Do?," "When You're Looking at Me, You're Looking at God's Grace," "Thank You, Lord, for Every Valley."

The Rev. and Mrs. Scott Sowers gave a testimony and greetings from the Free Will Baptist Press and the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists.

The congregation joined together to sing "What a Friend" and "Oh, How I Love Jesus."

Mrs. Maxine Cox gave some wonderful words of departure. She spoke of the early years of the work of the Lord and her involvement in the Conference.

The Rev. Jerry Campbell brought the message from Acts 4:1-33, "Power With God." The message was very inspiring to all.

After an altar prayer, some testimonies were given. All were very encouraging.

"When I Need Someone to Talk to" was sung by the Rev. and Mrs. M. E. Cox.

The morning service was closed in prayer, led by the Rev. Roger Motsinger.

(Friday Afternoon Session)

The Rev. M. E. Cox called the meeting to order, with the song "There Is Power in the Blood."

The opening prayer was given by the Rev. Claude Garrett Sr.

The Powers Brothers presented some special singing, "Old-Time Religion," "I Won't Be Coming Back Anymore," "Ashamed to Own the Blessed Saviour," "The Family Circle," "When I Cross That River," "Let's Meet by the River," and "Lord, I'll Be Praising You."

An offering was received, while the congregation was singing "Amazing Grace" and shaking hands.

The Powers Brothers came back to sing the following: "I'm Not Afraid to Cross That River," "I'll Be Waiting at the River for You," "God Send an Angel," "Jesus Is Living in Me," "He Touched Me," and "This Is What Heaven Means to Me."

While the Powers Brothers took a rest, Cecil and Judy Tucker sang "The Lighthouse" and "I Want My Lord to Be Satisfied With Me."

The Powers Brothers came back to sing "Lord, Send Revival Again," "Going Up," "Gloryland March," "Just Any Day Now," "I'll Fly Away," "I Saw the Light," and "Betrayed." All the singing was beautiful and was enjoyed by all.

The afternoon session was closed in prayer by everyone saying "The Lord's Prayer."

(Friday Night Session)

The Friday night session was called to order by the Rev. M. E. Cox, with the song "He Abides."

J. P. Huffman led in prayer.

Dr. David Hines sang "The Difference Is in the Heart" and "I Love Him More Each Day." He also spoke about the College and sharing the Word of God.

The Rev. Bobby Taylor gave a report of the Children's Home. Children are crying out and the world is not listening. At this time, there are forty-two children at the Children's Home and it costs $19,200 per child per year. Friends of Children's Day is in November. God called us to minister to some of these children; we can't reach all children but some. Pray for your child-care ministry.

The service was then turned over to the Youth President, Steve Pinyan, with the congregation singing "I'm So Glad Jesus Lifted Me." There were four churches represented, with a total of seventy-seven present.

Wayside Tabernacle was represented by two-year-old Andrew Garrett singing "Amazing Grace."

Frances Brightwell and Amy Vernon from High Point sang "God's Wonderful People." Ben Motsinger, also from High Point, played a piano solo entitled "What a Friend."

East Rockingham Choir sang "Oh God" and "Jesus Is My Very Best Friend." They also presented the College a $200 offering.

Ryan Pinyan, age four, sang "Jesus Loves Me" and his little brother Blake, age two, had to join in with "Praise the Lord." Older brother Steve, president of the youth rally, sang "Why Me?," "Will the Circle Be Unbroken?" and a song he wrote, "Where Are All My Friends?," representing the House of Prayer. They also presented the College an offering of $100.

Prayer requests were taken and service was closed in prayer by the Rev. Claude Garrett Sr.

(Saturday Morning Session)

The Forty-eighth Annual Session of the Piedmont Conference of Free Will Baptists of North Carolina reconvened at 9:30 a.m. on August 24, 1991. Conference was called to order by the moderator, the Rev. M. E. Cox, with the congregation singing "Victory in Jesus."

The opening prayer was given by the Rev. Ken Hardison.

Vice moderator Roger Motsinger continued with business.

The Rev. C. H. Overman, general secretary, spoke about promoting the work of our ministries. (He is the man to ask any questions you may have about your denomination, ministers, and churches.)

Moderator's address: the Rev. M. E. Cox, Psalm 24. He spoke about different changes over the last eighteen years that he has served. He reminded us that preachers are not gods; they are servants to the Lord. Woe unto the pastor who scatters the flock (Jeremiah). We should not be in an uproar or division in the church. We need to help each other, that we might grow. Mr. Cox will be around, not always, but he will help any way possible. He hopes he has done some good work for the Conference. Mr. Cox loves us; and be encouraged, God is still on the throne.

The Rev. Harold Jones gave a report on Foreign Missions. It is only as strong as local churches make it. The Great Commission was given to churches. Foreign Missions' job is to fulfill this job. A new field has opened in Eastern Europe. The Grubbs family hopes to leave next spring.

The Retirement Homes report was given by the Rev. Walter Sutton. They provide a home, all appliances, all repairs, all yard work for only thirty percent of one's retirement income. The ministry needs support of churches to help cover expenses. No help comes from the government or county.

The Rev. Tom Brooks was honored for his many years of service in the work of the Lord. He has retired and was presented a plaque from the Conference. He was born May 19, 1912, and ordained July 31, 1945. He has pastored five different churches; and because of ill health, had to retire. Brother Brooks was unable to come because of illness, so Bobby Foy stood in to accept the plaque. The Conference offered a rising vote of appreciation and prayer for him.

Open business session: Concerning election of officers, the clerk's and treasurer's position to be longer than two years. Motion was made by the Rev. Jerry Campbell and seconded by the Rev. John Furr that the Executive Board study rules and regulations concerning this rule.

A special offering was taken up for the Rev. Ken Hardison because of sickness in his family.

The Woman's Auxiliary report was given by Marie Holmes. The next meeting will be October 19, 1991, at East Rockingham Free Will Baptist Church.

The Home Missions report was given by the Rev. Carlee Stallard; they are working hard in St. Cloud, Florida.

The treasurer's report was given; the report was accepted.

The worship service began with the Rev. and Mrs. Roger Motsinger singing "It'll Be Worth It After All," "Rescue Me, Lord," and "There's a Man in Here."

The Rev. Claude Beam Jr. blessed us with the song "When He Was on the Cross."

The Rev. M. E. Cox gave the message on Acts 5:12-16. The world will get worse. The answer is Jesus Christ; He is the cure. The cure must come through the church. Three things about the church . . . Jesus said, "Upon this rock, I will build my church . . . with my blood, I bought this church"; and, it is holy and without blemish. The message was very inspiring to all. Brother Cox closed in prayer.

The Piedmont Conference wished to thank the pastor, the Rev. Jerry Campbell, and the good members of High Point Free Will Baptist Church for their welcome, for hosting the Forty-eighth Annual Session, and for the fine meals that they served the Piedmont Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev. Doris Pinyan

PROCEEDINGS

Wednesday Morning

The Albemarle Conference of Original Free Will Baptists met on October 9, 1991, with Free Union Free Will Baptist Church, Pinetown, North Carolina.

The Conference opened with the congregation singing "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms." The devotions were given by the Rev. Joe Griffith, who used 1 Corinthians 13 as his Scripture. He closed with prayer.

The welcome was by Mr. Charlie Keech and the response was by Mr. Billy Dilday.

The Conference was called to order by the clerk, using words of the late Oscar Webster, past clerk. The adopting of the program was the first order of business. The enrollment of the churches was next, with all fifteen represented. The enrollment of ministers followed, with eight present, two absent and two excused (one moved). Visiting ministers and delegates from other church bodies were recognized as follows: the Revs. C. H. Overman, Bobby Taylor, N. D. Beaman, and James Corbett, of the Central Conference; the Rev. James B. Hardee, of Pee Dee Association; the Revs. David Hines, and Bruce Barrow, of the Eastern Conference; the Rev. Kenneth Littleton, of Cape Fear; and the Revs. Paul Grubbs and Harold Jones of the Western Conference.

The moderator, the Rev. Robert May, gave his address using the words, "Hear Ye the Word of the Lord." He used Scripture from Acts 1:8. His message was on winning the lost to Christ, and the conditions of our churches in the service of Christ today. He then established the rules of the Conference for the day.

The appointment of temporary committees was next. The Resolutions Committee was composed of the Rev. Joe Griffith, the Rev. W. L. Brickhouse, and Mr. Gary Burbage. The Nominating Committee was the Rev. Charlie Overton, Mr. Billy Dilday and the Rev. Frankie Baggett. The Rev. Joe Griffith then brought up the matter of changes to be made in the Albemarle Conference Constitution which read as follows: Article IV paragraphs 2 and 3 to be deleted and replaced as follows: "A board of trustees (3 members), a board of education (3 members), a board of ordination (5 members) and a board of missions (5 members) shall be elected. The term of office for these boards shall be so adjusted as to terminate the office of one member annually." Section 8 of the By-Laws to delete the word temperance. Section 12 of the By-Laws to read "not less than one hour prior to adoption." This matter was tabled to be voted on later.

The morning offering for the benefit of the Conference was taken, while the congregation sang "All the Way My Savior Leads Me." The Rev. James Owens prayed the offertory prayer. The Rev. Charlie Overton then opened the doors of the Conference to receive any new ministers as members. The Rev. James Corbett of the Central Conference petitioned to become a member pending his letter. He was accepted by motion. The Rev. Kenneth Littleton of the Cape Fear Conference petitioned to become a member of our Conference pending his letter. He was accepted by motion.

The clerk gave the report of the Executive Committee which was accepted by motion. (See Reports.)

The report of the Board of Ordination was made by the Rev. Charlie Overton. Report was accepted by motion. (See Reports.)

The following reports were then made: Delegate's report of the State Convention, Mrs. Eunice Sexton; report on denominational ministries, showing slides of these ministries, the Rev. C. H. Overman; the Children's Home, the Rev. Bobby Taylor; Mount Olive College, the Rev. David Hines; Missions, the Rev. David Hansley; Retirement Homes, the Rev. James B. Hardee; Foreign Missions, the Rev. Harold Jones (he reminded us that March 13 would be the World Missions Conference). These reports were received as information. Business ended for the morning session. We entered the worship service.

The congregation sang "Higher Ground" and the Rev. Bruce Barrow led us in prayer. Special music was by the host church, a group called "The New Day Spirituals." They sang "My Jesus Knows Just What I Need" and "O, for a Love of God." They sang beautifully. The Rev. W. S. Burns, pastor of Free Union Church, brought the message, using for his Scripture Ezekiel 37. After speaking on the powerful Word of God, he closed with an altar prayer for himself. The Rev. David Hansley led the others in prayer.

The closing prayer of the morning session was by the Rev. James B. Hardee, who also gave thanks for the noon meal.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The evening session began with the Rev. Luther Swinson giving a devotion. The congregation sang "'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus." He then read Luke 7:1-10. After a few remarks, he closed with prayer.

The Rev. Frankie Baggett led the memorial service, using Scripture from 2 Timothy 4:7-8. He read a poem by Helen Steiner Rice and read the names of the 26 deceased members of all the churches of the past year. After reading another poem, he sang a song, "Welcome Home," and closed with prayer.

A treasury report was given by Mr. Lloyd Jones Jr. The report was adopted by motion. (See Reports.)

Recognition of visitors was given by the moderator.

At the roll call of churches, 48 of 50 churches reported by delegate or letter. Last year 47 of 52 churches reported.

On proper motion the program for the Conference was approved. The moderator then addressed the Conference, using 2 Peter 3:1-3 for his remarks. He stressed that we should be productive—"tell the Word of God to the world without shame."

PARTIAL REPORT OF THE CREDENTIALS COMMITTEE

We, the Credentials Committee, make the following report. All delegates and ministers register if they have not done so. Remember, each church is entitled to one delegate for the first 100 members, and one for each additional 100 or fraction thereof.

All delegates and ministers wear name tags. Only those wearing name tags are eligible to vote or speak to any issue unless granted special permission by the moderator.

We move that all delegates and ministers of the Western Conference who have properly registered be seated with all legal and proper rights and privileges. There are registered, at this time, 45 delegates, 61 ordained ministers, and 4 licensed ministers.

We move the adoption of this partial report.

The business session began with the reading of the Executive Committee report given by the clerk (see Reports). On proper motion, the report was accepted.

The moderator then read a letter from the clerk of New Life Free Will Baptist Church stating their intentions to withdraw from the Western Conference of Original Free Will Baptists. On proper motion, the New Life Church was dropped from our roll of churches.

With no further business at this time, the Board of Ordination gave its report to the Conference (see Reports). On proper motion the report was accepted as given.

The moderator then received all newly licensed ministers and newly ordained ministers into the Conference with the right hand of fellowship.

The hour of worship began with the congregation singing. Special music was provided by the host church. The moderator then introduced the Rev. Lloyd Hargis, pastor of Everett Chapel Church, for the message. Brother Hargis delivered a very inspiring sermon that blessed everyone's heart.

Lunch was served by the host church.

The afternoon session began with devotions and prayer by Brother Kevin Stott, using 2 Chronicles 29:11 as his text.

The Rev. C. H. Overman, general secretary of the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists presented a slide presentation of our denominational work.

The following gave brief reports on denominational ministries: Dr. Floyd Cherry, Carolina Bible Institute; John Williams, Cragmont; Bobby Taylor, Children's Home; Harold Jones, Foreign Missions; David Hines, Mount Olive College; Cliff Gray, Free Will Baptist Press; C. H. Overman, Retirement Homes; Lester Duncan, Church Finance; David Hansley, Home Missions; Ray Wells, North Carolina Ministerial Association.

On proper motion, all reports were received as information.

The Treasurer's Report was given by Mr. Cliff Gray. (See Reports.)

The Resolutions Committee Report was given by the Rev. Frank Grubbs. (See Reports.)

The Memorial Committee Report was given by the Rev. Arnold Price. (See Reports.)

The Nominating Committee Report was given by the Rev. Royster Martin. (See Reports.)

There being no further business, a motion was made that the Conference adjourn and leave all business in the hands of the Executive Committee. Motion carried.

The Rev. Billy Toler gave the prayer of benediction.

The 1992 Conference will convene October 15 at Northern Free Will Baptist Church in Bahama, NC. The 1993 conference is scheduled to be held at Union Grove Free Will Baptist Church, Pikeville, NC.

REPORTS

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Board of the Western Conference met on June 24, 1991, at the Marsh Swamp Free Will Baptist Church. The meeting was called to order by the moderator, Brother Wells, who also led us in prayer. The first item of business was discussion on the revision of our Annual Church Letter. After some discussion on this matter, the motion was made by Brother Joe Ingram and seconded by Brother Cliff Gray to revise the Annual Church Letter to the form agreed to by the Executive Committee. Motion carried.

The second item of business at this meeting was the program for our 1991 Conference to be held at Unity Free Will Baptist Church, Wilson. The motion was made for the program to be prepared as discussed, pending confirmation from speakers. Motion carried.

The third item of business was a discussion on reports that are given at our Annual Conference. After much discussion on this matter, the motion was made that the Conference approve the General Secretary of the Original Free Will Baptists to make reports of denominational ministries at our Annual Conference from now on. Motion carried.

A fourth item of business was a discussion on churches that do not represent at all at our Annual Conference. On proper motion that any church not representing by letter or delegates to the Annual Conference of the Western Conference of Original Free Will Baptists for two consecutive years be suspended from said Conference until they properly represent. Motion carried.

A final item of business at this meeting was a discussion about the congregation of New Life Original Free Will Baptist Church hiring a pastor that is not an Original Free Will Baptist. After much discussion, a motion was made that we send a letter to the New Life Congregation advising them that the responsibility is theirs. Motion carried.

On proper motion the Executive Board meeting adjourned.

LETTER SENT TO NEW LIFE CHURCH

Clerk, New Life OFWB Church
Route 1, Box 550
Lucama, NC 27851

Dear Clerk:

This is to advise you that the Executive Committee of the Western Conference of Original Free Will Baptists, in accordance with the Articles of Faith of Original Free Will Baptists, has placed New Life OFWB Church on suspension as of June 24, 1991.

The Executive Committee has no alternative but to take this action due to the church's failure to comply with the Articles of Faith and Church Government for Original Free Will Baptists. We refer you to page 89, "Examination and Procedure for Transfer from Another Denomination." We also refer you to page 139 of the 1991 Yearbook, "Report of the Board of Ordination of the Western Conference," items 10, 11, 12.

This suspension will be lifted at which time the pastor and the church meet and follow the above referenced requirements.

Yours in His service,

Ray Wells, Moderator
Charles Renfrow, Clerk

 - Frank Grubbs and De Eakes met with above persons and their pastor (Roy Jernigen, an Independent Baptist) at their request on Sunday evening, March 10, 1991.
9. The Christian Flag Service (Page 250, 1985 Yearbook):
 - The Board of Ordination will serve as a Conference Christian Flag Committee. Any minister pastoring in the Western Conference at the time of his death will be given the Christian Flag service, if the family so desires. The flag will be purchased by the Conference.
10. Ministers Transferring Into the Western Conference:
 - These persons must be cleared with the Board of Ordination prior to assuming their pastorate. The church is responsible to see this requirement is met. Some of our churches refuse to follow this simple procedure—our churches are not independent of the Conference as are some other denominations.

1. Ordination Requirements:

We remind our churches and ministers of the two-year educational requirement and that certain subjects and areas of ministry (see page 250, 1985 Yearbook) have to be covered in that requirement.

2. License Period:

There is a five-year limitation on the license to preach in preparation for ordination. If at any time the local church and licensed minister allow the license to lapse, the entire licensing process must be redone, beginning with the initial recommendation of the local church.

3. Conference Attendance:

If a minister holding membership in our Conference fails to attend two consecutive sessions of the Conference or send a letter to the Conference showing reasonable excuse, the minister is subject to revocation of his credentials of ordination.

4. Annual Convention Attendance:

As of the 1989 session, the Western Conference requires the registration and attendance of at least one day of our Annual two day Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, which meets Wednesday and Thursday following the second Sunday of September.

5. Our Articles of Faith requires, and the Board of Ordination requests that all our churches calling ministers, associate ministers, supply or interim pastors to be sure that said minister satisfies all requirements for serving in this Conference (see pages 88-90 in The Articles of Faith and Principles of Church Government for Original Free Will Baptists of the English General Baptist Heritage).

Praise Item:

We continue to be thankful for those whom God has called into the gospel ministry this year. We continue to ask clergy and laity to unite in prayer that more young people will hear and heed God's call and prepare themselves for ministry. We also urge our people to work with their pastors and provide adequate spiritual and financial support and to cooperate with them in ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
 Craig Simmons, Chairman

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

We, your committee, beg leave to report that on February 18, 1991, we met concerning a request for a letter by the Rev. Darrell Cartrette, as he wanted to join the Eastern Conference in South Carolina, where he is now pastoring the New Vision Free Will Baptist Church in Hemingway, South Carolina. As there was a need to talk with the Rev. Cartrette prior to the writing of the letter, it was decided that the clerk would write a letter and set a time and place to meet with him. The letter was written and the proposed meeting was to take place on February 25, 1991.

On February 25, 1991, the Committee met; however, Mr. Cartrette was not present. Mr. Cartrette was contacted by telephone and he stated that he had not received notice of the meeting. A meeting was set for March 2, 1991.

On March 2, 1991, the Committee met with Mr. Cartrette concerning his request for a letter to transfer to the Eastern Conference. After talking with him and obtaining satisfactory answers to questions and events that the committee asked him about, a motion was made by the Rev. Charles Hilbourn, seconded by the Rev. Wade Nealey, that we give him a letter upon the proper request from the Eastern Conference. Motion was carried and a letter was written and mailed to the Eastern Conference, along with Mr. Cartrette's credentials from the Eastern Conference that were being held.

The Committee also discussed the situation of the four ministers that were absent from the last Association meeting without being excused. The Rev. Ricky Fowler was talked to by Brother Jack Penny and it was learned that he was working on the day of the meeting and had forgotten to request to be excused. He stated that in the future if he was not able to attend he would request to be excused. The Rev. Darrell Cartrette stated that he forgot to ask to be excused, as he was working in South Carolina at the church he is now pastoring. Mr. Cartrette stated that he was sorry and that in the future he would request to be excused if he was going to be absent. The Rev. Claude Housand and the Rev. Levy Ward were both sick and disabled, and unable to attend the Association due to health reasons. They asked that they be excused due to this. Family members gave apologies for their absences and will take proper action to correct this in the future.

(November 20, 1990)

The Executive Committee of the Cape Fear Conference met at the home of the Rev. C. Felton Godwin on Tuesday, November 20, 1990. All members were present.

The minutes were read and approved from the proceedings of the Cape Fear Conference, which was held at the First Free Will Baptist Church, Goldsboro, NC. These minutes were approved for printing in the Yearbook.

Motion was made and carried to allow for secretarial services performed by our secretary, W. Michael Ledbetter. It was noted that a lot of time went into our minutes for publication in the Yearbook. A thank you came from Brother Ledbetter for the committee's thoughtfulness.

With no other business, we adjourned with prayer.

(September 24, 1991)

The Executive Committee met at the home of the Rev. C. Felton Godwin, with all members present except for the Rev. Don Venable. The meeting was opened with prayer by our moderator. We planned the upcoming Cape Fear Conference, which is to be held at the Pleasant Grove Free Will Baptist Church, Erwin, NC. Speakers were suggested, as well as the appointment of temporary committees for the Conference.

Dola Dudley informed the committee that due to her declining health, she would like to step down as assistant secretary. It was noted that she was secretary on two occasions and the last time was for 10 years. The committee thanked her for all her years of service and wished her the best in the days to come.

A recommendation was adopted to present at the Conference concerning the question that was brought forth at a recent Union Meeting about ministers who do not attend the Union Meeting and Cape Fear Conference. The recommendation reads as follows: "The Executive Committee recommends that any minister who does not attend at least one Union Meeting during the year will have his name dropped from the Union Meeting roll. The minister may re-enroll at a later date by approval of the Union Meeting."

A motion was made and carried that Brother Felton Godwin be given an honorarium of $50 for services rendered as moderator of the Cape Fear Conference.

A motion was made to adjourn. We adjourned with prayer.

Respectfully submitted,
W. Michael Ledbetter, Conference Secretary

We had eight applicants this year. The competition was very close for these scholarships.

OBITUARY COMMITTEE

In Memory of The Rev. W. A. Martin

Scripture was read by the Rev. C. M. Coats. The following words were offered by the Rev. Leonard Woodall:

The Rev. W. A. Martin died July 9, 1991, and is survived by his widow, Annie Beasley Martin, who resides at Smithfield Manor Nursing Home in Smithfield, NC. He is survived by four daughters, Eula May Fornel of Brazil, South America; Ann Lowery of Raleigh, NC; Cynthia Benson of Benson, NC; and Sandra Stewart of Clayton, NC; and one son, Edward Martin of Four Oaks, NC.

Mr. Martin was ordained into the gospel ministry at the First Free Will Baptist Church of Smithfield, NC, on October 27, 1952. Since that date, he has pastored Steven's Chapel, Tee's Chapel, Yelverton Grove, and Smyrna.

We hold dear the memory of Brother Martin, send our condolences to his family and pray for them as they make adjustments in life to the realities of his life and death. We further hold dear the memories we have of any of our people who have deceased since our last Conference.

A memorial prayer was offered by the Rev. W. A. Hogg.

The congregation was led in singing, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord."

We do not claim that Brother Martin lived a perfect life any more than we make such a claim for our own lives, but we do believe that he aspired to the perfect will of our Lord in his life and ministry, as we all try to do and likely strived to achieve that mark as a pastor, family man, friend, and a true servant of the high calling that our Lord instructed in him.

A benediction was given by the Rev. Leonard Woodall.

"The Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen" (Romans 16:24).

Respectfully submitted,
 L. B. Woodall, Chairman
 C. M. Coats
 W. A. Hogg

MINISTER'S CONFERENCE

December 12, 1990—12 ministers were present. The Rev. Frank Harrison led the group in discussion of three questions: 1. What are the needs of the Free Will Baptist Church? 2. What are the needs of the individual ministries? 3. How can Mount Olive College help meet these needs?

March 25, 1991—12 members were present. Willem van der Plas gave us a report of our missions program. He told us of the work in the Philippines and of the possible new work in Eastern Europe.

June 24, 1991—14 members were present. The Rev. Harold Jones, director of Foreign Missions, spoke. He urged us to be open to God. God has reached out to man since his creation. Now God has turned over the work of missions to the saved.

September 22, 1991—13 ministers were present. The Rev. Bob Harber, director of Ethnic Missions, was in charge. He gave us a program on the ethnic work on the west coast. The churches are growing but there is a great need for ministers that know the language of the people.

Respectfully submitted,
Billy Nowell, President

CENTRAL CONFERENCE LAITY

We also want to remember our laity who have made their departure to be with the Lord. We have such precious memories of those also. Everything these dear ones did to help build up our denomination we truly appreciate.

A BAG OF TOOLS

Isn't it strange that princes and kings,
And clowns that caper in sawdust rings,
And common builders like you and me,
Are builders for eternity?

Each is given a bag of tools,
A shapeless mass, a book of rules:
And each must make ere life is flown,
A stumbling block, or a stepping-stone.

REPORT OF THE ORDAINING COUNCIL

The Ordaining Council of the Central Conference is charged with the responsibility of examining and certifying each candidate for license and ordination, granting clearance or receiving transfer of each minister from another conference, and properly exercising ministerial discipline as set forth in the Articles of Faith and Principles of Church Government for Original Free Will Baptists. The Council held five meetings during the past year to conduct its business and met twice to ordain men to the gospel ministry. All regular meetings were held at the Free Will Baptist Headquarters in Ayden, NC.

The Council met on November 25, 1990, at Reedy Branch Church to ordain Thomas Bowen to the gospel ministry, since he was received into the Conference last year pending his ordination.

At our first meeting in January, Stephen Curtis Atkins, a licentiate and a member of King's Cross Roads Church, appeared before the Council to ask that consideration be given to his taking the written examination for ordination, so that he could accept the pastorate of a church in the Eastern Conference in which he had been supplying the pulpit for several weeks. Since he had not met the requirements for ordination, the Council recommended that he meet with the Examining Board of the Eastern Conference to ask them if they would waive their rule to allow him to supply the pulpit at Ephesus Church beyond the period of three months. Since that time, Stephen has moved his membership to Ephesus Church and obtained the consent of a group of ministers of his own choosing who proceeded to ordain him without the sanction either of this Council or of the Eastern Conference Examining Board. When we received news of this action, the Council voted to remove his name from the list of licensed ministers.

Our chairman, J. B. Narron, proposed that a letter be written to the clerks of the churches in the Central Conference to remind them that any minister whom they wish to call as pastor who is not a member of this Conference should be instructed to meet with this Council for clearance to serve as pastor of a church in the Conference. It was also suggested that a clear statement of the limitations placed on licensed ministers as set forth in our Principles of Church Government be included in this letter, which was mailed to the clerks on March 1, 1991.

Four licensed ministers who had not yet completed the requirements for ordination met with the Council during this year to ask that these requirements be waived and that they be given the written examination for ordination. Each case was considered by the Council and it was decided that each of them should first meet the requirements as previously agreed upon by this Conference before they are allowed to take the examination.

Harry Allen Jones Jr., a member of Black Jack Church, was recommended for ordination subject to his passing the written examination. After taking the examination, he met with the Council on September 18, and was approved for ordination. The ordination service was conducted at his home church on Sunday, October 27, at 6 p.m.

The Council met jointly with the Examining Board of the Eastern Conference on July 16, 1991, at the Free Will Baptist Headquarters to discuss procedures for licensing and ordaining ministers as well as other common concerns.

Walter Roy Tyndall was recommended for license to preach by Howell Swamp Church and he was examined and approved for license by his church on September 16.

Ronnie Mohn, a member of the Eastern Conference, met with the Council on July 1 to seek approval to serve as a pastor in the Conference and to request membership in this Conference. Both requests were approved and we have since received a letter of recommendation and transfer from the Eastern Conference. Mike Daniels, a member of the Piedmont Conference, met with the Council to request approval to serve in the Central Conference and his request was granted. He also stated his desire to become a member of this Conference; but as yet, we have not received a letter from the Piedmont Conference.

Finally, we recommend that the names of Harry Allen Jones Jr. and Ronnie Mohn be added to the list of ordained ministers; that the name of Walter Roy Tyndall be added to the list of licensed ministers; and that the name of Stephen Curtis Atkins be dropped from the list of licensed ministers.

I move that this report be adopted.

CENTRAL CONFERENCE MISSIONS BOARD

The Central Conference Missions Board wants to thank all of you for your prayers and financial support during the past year. A very special "Thank You" is extended to the ladies, who through the State Auxiliary Convention, have continued a most generous support. We also want to express our deep appreciation to the churches who send gifts monthly.

The goals of the Central Conference Missions Board as assigned by this Conference are as follows:

1. "An Original Free Will Baptist Church in every town";
2. Stand ready to assist any church in our Conference that might need help; and
3. Be prepared to launch out in the establishment of another mission or supporting a prospective group which feels led to organize.

Our financial report reveals deposits in our checking account of $1,057.16, and expenditures of $1,400. All monies spent during this past year reflect our continued monthly support of Hillside Mission. Your Central Conference Mission Board also helped Hillside Mission refinance the loan for their property at a much lower rate of interest, reducing their payments significantly. We also have monies in "The Central Conference Mission Board Endowment Fund" with Church Finance Association. The interest from these savings has enabled us over the last two years to purchase central air conditioning units for Hillside, as well as replace a roof.

The Hillside Mission continues to rely on your help! During the coming year, your Mission Board will provide $100 per month to be used toward Hillside Mission's property payment.

We thank all of you for the confidence you have shown in us by electing us to serve on your Mission Board, however we cannot serve this Conference effectively without your prayers and support.
